

I have been on this state's no call list for a year and am pleased with the results. I would not!!! want to return to the days of unrestricted telemarketer calls. This list should be maintained at this strength , if not enhanced.